Superintendent, William M. Powers

Let me thank the Advocate Staff for the honor you extend in dedicating this issue of the Advocate to me.

It has been a rare privilege for me to have lived and worked in a Town where people respect and care for education. I say this because the essential relationship between our political democracy and public education has not been understood in far too many American communities.

To you, graduates this year, other members of the student body, and to my colleagues, I would wish you your dreams . . . the happiness and success that you and our society deserve and desire . . . belief in the value of education . . . love for your friends . . . faith and belief that sustain hope . . . and the determination and to try to keep on trying.

Different Drums... all in tune.

Each one of us has a different destiny waiting to be fulfilled. Each of us has unique talents and aspirations. And each of you will find your own happiness.

The world is a fascinating, exciting, alive place because each person has different abilities and ambitions. Yet, for all our differences, we're all striving toward a common goal: to make this world a better place.

Everyone marches to a different drum, that's true. But as you reach for YOUR success, make sure that your drumbeat is in harmony with others'.
